Summary:

This smearing nonsense has to stop. I don't like Islam and I have every right to feel that way. As a woman who believes in free speech, it is entirely justified. In order to preserve the rights and safety of women, and our right to speak our minds, I believe we must end immigration from Muslim countries. Its not a conclusion I want to reach, but common sense tells me it's unfortunately necessary.

I want to halt immigration from theocratic or tyrannical societies because I believe in freedom. Freedom and totalitarianism, especially religious totalitarianism which gives itself the authority of the creator of the universe, cannot live side by side. You must pick one. I pick freedom, and I will fight to preserve it from all that threatens it.

This isn't fascism. This is commitment to liberty and democracy. I will hold fast to this commitment and I will not cower down. I will fight for our age-old liberties, and if I become leader, UKIP will be a party that fights for our age-old liberties.
