Summary:

Details available so far suggest that a 19-year-old girl was lured by her 21-year-old classmate at a tuition centre in Kozhikode. She was then given a spiked drink and raped multiple times after she fell unconscious. The victim's statement has now been recorded by the NIA. She had told the agency that an attempt was made to forcefully convert her to Islam.

The brutal persecution of young Christian girls in Pakistan is ongoing, and largely ignored by “feminists” and fake human rights activists, who call it “Islamophobic” to shed light on such atrocities:

The Pontifical charity, Aid to the Church in Need, is sounding the alarm on the plight of young Christian women, and even teenagers, in Pakistan who are forced to convert to Islam. “Every year at least a thousand girls are kidnapped, raped, and forced to convert to Islam, even forced to marry their tormentors,”
