Summary:

Young imams are being trained in a network of Islamic schools across the UK that have been accused of promoting intolerance and misogyny, a secret Government report has warned. The report claims preachers emerging from some of the dozens of Darul Uloom madrasas scattered across Britain have views as extreme as those held by radical clerics who move to the UK from Islamic countries - and may spread them to worshippers. The Mail on Sunday has identified 48 Darul Ulooms - which can be translated as House of Knowledge - that follow a strict syllabus called Dars-E-Nizami.
